

What sites can be seen in Tallinn?

Tallinn is a wonderful city, located at the crossroads of trade routes going from west to east and north to south, which determined its role in the multiple cultural and historical processes. This fact resulted in many historical monuments admired by hundreds and thousands tourists from all over the world every year. The ancient architecture of castles and buildings entices a lot of the art lovers that is why a travel to this wonderful city guarantees you deep emotions and vivid impressions.

Why to visit Tallinn?

The amazing network of the streets is a result of the successful development during several hundred years, when the city was constantly growing and strengthening its social-political and cultural influence. The tourists can evaluate the excellent transport connections as there is no trouble at all to get to the main ancient monuments. The best idea is to come to Tallinn for a few days because then you can visit all interesting city regions, learn its history and architecture worth learning and seeing.

The main attractions of the city

The Kadriorg Park. An excellent place, boasting a 300-year-long history, which occupies more than 70 hectares. The territory today is very well kept, and the beautiful park corners are suitably accompanied with the splendid landscaping where flowers and nicely trimmed bushes alternate with the evergreen lawns.

Alexander Nevsky Cathedral. The splendour and power of this building entice people and they always tend to come here. The cathedral was built in 1887 keeping with the best traditions of Russian architecture.

Oleviste Church. The church was built as a tower which is now 124 metres high. There is a scenic viewpoint for the tourists, overlooking the spectacular view of the entire city, including its medieval part. The ascent is 232 steps but the view is absolutely worth ascending.

The Town Hall Pharmacy. According to the papers, the building was erected in the 15 century and considered to be one of the oldest in Europe. The building today houses a museum where you can see various relics and medieval pharmacy attributes. The tourists may also buy souvenirs, choosing from a broad range of items.

Vip Tallinn
Apartments
and transfer for rent

www.viptallinn.ee